Other Bar Options

Straight Tab - Choose the drink options you wish to be served to your guests and this is charged on a consumption basis.

Subsidized drinks - This is another cost effective and popular option for party's and events. The Guest pays a portion of the drink cost and the remainder is charged to a tab. For example if you set the price at $2 a drink the remainder is paid via a tab.

Pay as you go - This is usually for smaller or more cost effective functions where food is supplied but guests pay for their own drinks.

Half and half - Where a drinks package is offered or a tab for basic options and guests pay for premium bar or other bar options that are not Included.

At the Alehouse we offer free room hire and minimum spends apply these do not have to be met by individuals but rather what the group spends or brings to the venue.

In in a pay as you go, subsidized or half and half arrangement the guests can contribute to these minimum spends for a more cost effective function.
